"Section 3. Fisheries Development Board. The Fisheries Development Board shall consist of five (5) members, two of whom shall be selected by the District Administrator and the other three selected by the Speaker. The term of office shall be two (2) years. If a member resigns, or is removed for cause, the substitute shall be chosen by the Speaker if he is one of those selected by the Speaker, and he shall be the District Administrator if he is one of those selected by the District Administrator. The substitute or substitutes shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term. The Speaker shall serve as ex-officio member of the Board. The members of the Board shall be entitled to per diem as prescribed by law. The Board members shall choose a chairman at the first meeting, called by the Speaker, and shall meet from time to time as the chairman deems appropriate."
